IRRIGATION BLOCK PLAT
IRRIGATION BLOCK 251

Comprising the lands located within the operation of the
South Columbia Basin Irrigation District

Township 14 North, Range 24 East W. M.
Township 15 North, Range 24 East W. M.

DEFINITIONS

As used herein, an Irrigation Block is a body of land which is to be put under irrigation at substantially the same time.

A Farm Unit is a unit of land owned by the United States suitable for settlement purposes as determined by the Secretary of the Interior.

A Water Delivery Unit is a topographically delineated unit of land, irrespective of ownership, which is served by a single turnout with a delivery elevation higher than the irrigable land therein.

CERTIFICATE

I hereby certify that this plat of Irrigation Block 251, Columbia Basin Project, Washington is based upon an actual survey of the lands therein; that the distances and bearings for farm unit and water delivery unit boundaries are shown thereon correctly; and that sufficient corners and monuments have been set on the ground to permit an orderly resurvey if necessary.
